Recreation Complex "Dižozoli"

A wonderful stop in the forest, on the banks of ponds. A corner where you can relax, fish, observe nature and organize recreational activities. Dwarf houses are set up in the forest – one like Dwarf Grandma's pancake house with a grill in the centre, the other is larger, which can accommodate larger groups in cold weather. There is a special atmosphere here in December and January, when everyone can meet Santa Claus and elves, participate in creative workshops, and spend time actively skating and spend the night in the Christmas lodge.

Walking trail in Ugāle "Tak-Ugāle"

When driving through Ugāle, stop at the Trial Track! It is where the nearly 6 km long circular walking trail TAK-UGĀLE begins. The route winds through the village, a hundred-year-old forest, along ravines created by the Ice Age and returns to the inhabited area. Crossing the deep ravines will be facilitated by stairs and bridges, you will be able to rest on benches and fallen tree trunks, you will feel the wind in your hair and the tingling in your chest while swinging on the swings built on the edge of the ravine. You may also look at the information stands, where you will find the insights of Latvian writers about this place. At the beginning of the trail, look for a crossword puzzle in the box, solving which will make the walk even more interesting.
